PARKING: Parking is allowed in designated parking areas only and is available on a first come, first served basis.

SPECTATOR ADMISSION: There will be a spectator admission charge to attend the 2008 Bash at the Beach. Admission tickets will be sold at the Friday Road entrance gate. Ticket prices are as follows:

All-Tournament Pass - $ 10.00 per person

Daily Pass - $ 5.00 per person (under 3 free, all others pay full price)

Only players, coaches and umpires are exempt from the admission charge. Each player/coach must have admission credential for free entry. No exceptions.

MEDICAL A certified athletic trainer will be located at Cocoa Expo Sports during the entire tournament.

FLUIDS No water coolers or ice will be provided in the dugout. Water fountains are located at each dugout throughout the complex. Each team will be allowed to bring a cooler with drinks into the dugout area.
NO COOLERS WILL BE ALLOWED OUTSIDE OF THE DUGOUT AREA.

RAIN OUT PROCEDURES: Teams will receive credit for future tournament if less than (1) game is played. There will be no credit issued once the second game begins. No gate admission refunds, nor rain checks, for spectators at any time. If play is in doubt due to inclement weather or rain, fans may wish to wait until play begins to enter park.

FOOD & BEVERAGE: Concession stands will be located throughout the Complex. Guests will not be permitted to bring any outside food or beverage onto the facility. The only outside coolers permitted on the premises will be the aforementioned team cooler.

I hope that this information answers any questions that you have and will assist you as you make your final plans to attend the tournament. If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to let me know. The tournament committee, Cocoa Expo Sports and I are committed to making Cocoa Expo Youth Baseball Tournaments the finest baseball tournaments in the country. We look forward to hosting your team.
