Cocoa Expos Win Southeast Division and Take On the Laredo Heat
2005 PDL Southern Conference Playoffs
Live Internet Broadcast

Cocoa, FL – The Cocoa Expos dominated the 2005 Premier Development League Southeast Division and captured the title with a record of 11 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties. This weekend the division winning Cocoa Expos will travel to El Paso, Texas for the Southern Conference Playoffs which are being hosted by the El Paso Patriots of the Mid-South Division.

On Friday, July 29, 2005 the Cocoa Expos will take on the Laredo Heat at 6:00pm Mountain time (8:00pm Eastern time). 4th year Head Coach of the Cocoa Expos Gerry Queen said, “We are very pleased with our Southeast Division Championship win this year. The players have shown a great team spirit all through the season and are looking forward to playing in the Southern Conference Playoffs.” The Laredo Heat finished second in the Mid-South Division. The second game of the night will be between the El Paso Patriots and the Central Florida Kraze at 8:30pm Mountain time (10:30pm Eastern time). The winners of these two games will meet in the Southern Conference Final at 8:30pm Mountain time (10:30pm Eastern time) on Saturday, July 30, 2005.

All games are being played at Patriot Stadium in El Paso, Texas and will be broadcast live on the internet at the following address:
